Our County Officers.

We had a Justice of the Peace in Rockville District, before the action of our new Gover nor, W. P. WHYTS, a gentleman pre-emisent ly suited for the position. That gentleman was Mr. Thos. Andreason, a member of one; o our oldest families, a ripe scholar in the English and dead languages, faed to the law, and esteemed by this whole community, as an unswerring Democrat, and withal a character for Integrity never yet questioned or doubted.

For some unknown reason, our Governor (elected as a Democrat,) has seen fit to tur this gentleman out of office, and rob this com Administration. So long as the Radical par-tr controls the machinery of Government. and the legislation of Congress, all hope of glad if some reason could be given for this course of conduct. If the Governor has acted under the advice of our Delegates, then they hare been derelict in their duty, and as on representatives we call upon them to furnish us the grounds of their action.
